

Pursuing Equity and Inclusion within Environmental Organizations

February 12 and 13, 2019

Our natural resources are strengthened through diversity, our organizations and partnerships, too, demonstrate strength through diversity and inclusion. Many environmental NGOs, foundations, governmental agencies and academic departments have barriers to developing cultures inclusive of diversity.¹ Please join Marcelo Bonta and a team of regional partners for our two-day program in February 2019 as we advance our environmental movement through organizational and individual strategy and change.

Be a Sponsor, Be a Participant

February 12

7:15am – 9:30am EPN Breakfast program on Justice, Equity, Inclusion, Diversity in the Environmental Movement

10:00am – 2:00pm Workshop Day I

Organizational change and growth facilitated by Marcelo Bonta

February 13

9:00am – 1:00pm Workshop Day II

Individual change and growth facilitated by Marcelo Bonta

Invest $1,500 to receive featured sponsor status and registration for three workshop participants

General Registration = $100 per participant

Registration includes the programs listed above, parking and meals.

Marcelo Bonta is the President of Marcelo Bonta Consulting, LLC. A thought leader in the environmental movement, he brings almost two decades of experience, facilitating individual, organizational, and systemic DEI change processes, through process consulting, coaching, advising, trainings, leadership development programs, organizational strategies, insightful and groundbreaking articles, and keynote talks.

Please contact Dr. Joe Campbell at campbell.844@osu.edu for more information.

¹Taylor, Dorceta E. (2014) The State of Diversity in Environmental Organizations: Mainstream NGOs, Foundations, Government Agencies.

